LEGAL STATUS

Purpose, Scope and Controlled Use

Employee confidentiality, security, inventions and IP assignment template.

This document has been populated with CertaMaris standing business, platform, security, privacy, AI and commercial positions. It remains a reusable execution template because the actual counterparty, transaction, fees, dates, signatures, jurisdictional corporate particulars or other deal-specific facts vary by engagement. Those fields must be completed before execution.

CertaMaris standing facts used by this document

- Service model: negotiated business-to-business contracts; no consumer or self-service signup model is assumed by these documents
- Platform: browser-based B2B maritime cybersecurity, compliance, assurance, risk-intelligence and operational-resilience SaaS platform
- Customer owns Customer Content; CertaMaris receives only rights needed to provide, secure and support the Services.
- High-sensitivity cyber posture and vessel/facility technical content is treated as Customer Confidential Information.
- Security reporting: security@certamaris.com
- Procurement/legal-document requests: <https://certamaris.com/contact?intent=procurement>

Transaction-specific fields intentionally left for execution include the actual CertaMaris legal entity and formation jurisdiction (if not already established in the Order Form), counterparty identity, addresses, signatory names/titles, signature dates, commercial scope/fees, and any negotiated governing-law or venue choice.

TERMS / NOTICE

Operative Provisions

CertaMaris-specific standing content for this controlled release.

1. Employment Relationship Reference

The applicable transaction document identifies employer and relationship to separate offer/handbook. CertaMaris and the counterparty will apply this requirement consistently with the Agreement, CertaMaris security and data-classification controls, and applicable law. Transaction-specific names, amounts, dates, territories, deliverables, approvals and jurisdictional choices are completed in the Order Form, SOW, schedule, notice or execution block as applicable rather than pre-populated in this reusable form.

2. Confidential Information

Each party will protect the other's Confidential Information using at least reasonable care and will use it only to perform or exercise rights under the Agreement. Customer vulnerability findings, network-zone maps, remote-access pathways, technical inventories, cyber plans and actual security posture are Customer Confidential Information. CertaMaris methodology, non-public product architecture, security materials and commercial terms are CertaMaris Confidential Information. Standard exclusions apply for information lawfully public, previously known without duty, independently developed, or rightfully received from a third party. Confidentiality duties continue for five years after disclosure or termination; trade secrets remain protected for so long as they qualify as trade secrets under applicable law. Required legal disclosures are permitted with notice where lawful.

3. Security and Systems

Require policy compliance, credentials and incident reporting. CertaMaris and the counterparty will apply this requirement consistently with the Agreement, CertaMaris security and data-classification controls, and applicable law. Transaction-specific names, amounts, dates, territories, deliverables, approvals and jurisdictional choices are completed in the Order Form, SOW, schedule, notice or execution block as applicable rather than pre-populated in this reusable form.

4. Inventions and Work Product

To the extent permitted by law and as consideration for the engagement, the service provider assigns to CertaMaris all right, title and interest in work product specifically created for CertaMaris under the agreement, including source code, documentation, designs, configurations, inventions and related intellectual-property rights, excluding identified pre-existing materials. The provider will execute further documents reasonably necessary to confirm ownership. Open-source and third-party materials must be disclosed and used in accordance with CertaMaris policy and license obligations.

5. Excluded / Prior Inventions

To the extent permitted by law and as consideration for the engagement, the service provider assigns to CertaMaris all right, title and interest in work product specifically created for CertaMaris under the agreement, including source code, documentation, designs, configurations, inventions and related intellectual-property rights, excluding identified pre-existing materials. The provider will execute further documents reasonably necessary to confirm ownership. Open-source and third-party materials must be disclosed and used in accordance with CertaMaris policy and license obligations.

CertaMaris and the counterparty will apply this requirement consistently with the Agreement, CertaMaris security and data-classification controls, and applicable law. Transaction-specific names, amounts, dates, territories, deliverables, approvals and jurisdictional choices are completed in the Order Form, SOW, schedule, notice or execution block as applicable rather than pre-populated in this reusable form.

10. Post-Employment Confidentiality

The applicable instrument states continuing confidentiality and trade-secret obligations. CertaMaris and the counterparty will apply this requirement consistently with the Agreement, CertaMaris security and data-classification controls, and applicable law. Transaction-specific names, amounts, dates, territories, deliverables, approvals and jurisdictional choices are completed in the Order Form, SOW, schedule, notice or execution block as applicable rather than pre-populated in this reusable form.

11. Governing Law / Notices

Operational notices may be sent through the Services or business email contacts. Formal notices of material breach, termination or legal process must use the notice details in the applicable Order Form or executed agreement and may also be routed through <https://certamaris.com/contact?intent=procurement> for triage. The applicable Order Form controls governing law and venue. If it is silent, the Agreement is governed by the law of the U.S. state in which the CertaMaris contracting entity identified in that Order Form is organized, without regard to conflicts rules, and exclusive venue lies in the state and federal courts located in that jurisdiction. The parties may agree to arbitration, jury waiver or another forum in the Order Form; no separate mandatory consumer arbitration regime is created by this baseline.
